

Affidavit of Successor

The "Affidavit of Successor" may be used if the decedent left no will and the estate was not probated. Living heirs have certain rights according to Washington State laws of Descent and Distribution. One heir may claim and distribute to other heirs with their written approval. Please note this affidavit is only to be used for personal property. The transfer of real estate or real property is not allowed.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, on oath deposes and says:

1. That the name and address of the undersigned successor is as follows:
 - a. Decedent Name: _____
 Successor Name: _____
 - b. Address: _____
 - c. City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____
2. The undersigned claimant is a "successor" as defined in Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 11.62.005.
3. The decedent was, at the time of their death, a resident of the state of Washington.
4. The value of the entire estate of the decedent subject to probate, wherever located, (not including any surviving spouse's community property interest in any assets which are subject to probate in the decedent's estate), less liens and encumbrances, does not exceed $100,000.
5. Forty days have elapsed since the death of the decedent.
6. No application or petition for the appointment of a personal representative is pending or has been granted in any jurisdiction.
7. All debts of the decedent including funeral and burial expenses have been paid or provided for.
8. The undersigned successor claims the following personal property, which property is subject to probate:

| Description of Property | Amount |
|--------------------------------|---------------|
